DESCRIPTION

Set in a lovely semi-rural location with easy access to a range of facilities and also the wonderful surrounding countryside, Belcoo (named after a border town between Northern and Southern Ireland) has been finished to the highest of standards, and benefits from underfloor heating, a double car barn and stunning views.

The main features of Belcoo include:

- There is a spacious entrance hallway with a beautiful glass panelled oak staircase and useful cloakroom. Also accessed off the hallway is a very useful further reception room or study.
- The double aspect sitting room is to the front of the property, and the south facing open plan kitchen/dining room is to the rear, with bi-fold doors opening out to the patio and garden.
- The spacious and bright kitchen is presented fully equipped with integrated appliances, including: AEG high-level double oven, dishwasher, fridge/freezer, induction hob; a Lamona wine cooler and a Franke 4-in-1 tap over the sink. There is ample cupboard space and a quartz worktops.
- Leading off the hallway is the utility room which is fitted with dove grey cupboards and includes integrated AEG washing machine and Lamona tumble drier. It also contains a sink and door to the outside of the property.
- To the first floor are 4 double bedrooms. The principal bedroom is to the rear of the property and contains two built in wardrobes, with en-suite shower room and views to the South Downs. The second bedroom benefits from large a walk-in wardrobe/office area.
- The family bathroom comprises a separate bath and shower cubicle, vanity unit and heated towel rail.
- Heating and hot water is supplied by an air source heat pump, with underfloor heating to the ground floor. Hardwearing Amtico flooring to the ground floor, with the exception of the carpeted sitting room.

OUTSIDE

The property benefits from having it's own driveway and a integrated car barn. To the rear and side of the house there is a lawned garden with flower beds and patio area. There is also a useful outside tap and external sockets.
